TELEPHONY

THE AMERICAN TELEPHONE JOURNAL

INDEX TO VOLUME 95

JULY 7 to DECEMBER 29, 1928

TELEPHONY PUBLISHING CORPORATION
608 So. Dearborn St.
CHICAGO

Immediately following the title of the articles in this index will be found the number of the issue, followed by the page number. Thus 10-14 means issue No. 10, page 14. Articles designated by an asterisk (*) are illustrated.

A

Accounting: Report of accounting committee* (National convention), 16-39.
Advertising:
Human appeal featured in telephone ads.* by Gray Le Vitt, 8-22.
Human interest in telephone advertising.* by H. F. Rehg, 22-18.
Putting personalities in advertising.* by Leona Ahlman, 1-25.
American Telephone & Telegraph Co., Harry B. Thayer retires from.* 8-17.
Makes non-exclusive contracts with Postal company, 9-34.
Makes non-exclusive contracts with Western Union, 7-19.
Anchors: The locating of anchors for down guys.* by J. H. Mathews, 26-30.
Arizona: Checking the program with achievement.* by Roy George, 24-21.
Association:
Big convention of Independent industry.* 16-19.
National association directors meet.* 16-35.
Washington office of, by Alfred L. Geiger, 16-32.
Automatic:
Athens, Ohio, now has automatic service.* by C. S. Cadwell, 9-32.
LaFayette, Ind., converts to.* by C. I. Kuppinger, 4-30.
New system in San Angelo, Texas, exchange.* by C. G. Wilson, 22-38.
Operation for Santa Barbara (Calif.).* by H. E. Conlee, 14-34.
South Dakota pioneer town (Mobridge).* by C. I. Kuppinger, 3-30.

B

Battery: Storage battery in telephone work, by Theodore A. Adle, 4-14.
British Columbia:
All Canadian toll circuit between British Columbia and Alberta.* 23-23.
Chilliwack Telephone Co. becomes associated company of British Columbia Telephone Co., 19-16.
Telephone company grows with country.* by N. F. Pullen, 11-18.
Budgets: Their development and use.* by F. J. Chesterman, 12-19.
Buildings: Properly designed telephone buildings, by Howard K. Jones, 15-50.
Business:
Cooperation in the telephone business.* by George M. Kloidy, 8-24.
Survey to encourage greater use of long distance, 21-21.

C

Cable: Helpful hints on testing.* by William Jamieson, 13-16.
California:
Automatic operation for Santa Barbara.* by H. E. Conlee, 14-34.
San Francisco valuation figures challenged in Bell's case, 22-30.
Canada:
All Canadian toll circuit between British Columbia and Alberta.* 23-23.
Commission against interfering with management, 9-36.
Public ownership in Western Canada, by John Curry, 19-23.
Chicago has had service for 50 years.* 4-20.
Commercial:
Additional revenue possibilities.* by H. F. McCulla, 25-14.
Division's fine discussions (National convention).* 16-30.
Dollars and cents of personalization.* by Dorothy H. Van Ert, 3-18.
Necessity of adequate rates.* by R. F. Wilder, 2-14.
Revenue development campaign of Lincoln, Neb., company.* 24-33.
Sales possibilities in telephone field.* by R. F. Wilder, 15-33.
Selling company and product to public.* by H. F. McCulla, 6-14.
Communication, modern method of.* by Anne Barnes, 1-27.
Compensation:
Nebraska supreme court extends provisions of compensation law, 18-50.
State monopoly of workmen's compensation being sought, 18-48.
Competition, regulation through, authorized in Minnesota (edit.), 1-17.
Conventions:
Annual Tri-State summer convention.* by S. R. Edwards, 7-14.
Big convention of Independent industry.* 16-19.
Illinois' "Progressive" convention.* by S. R. Edwards, 20-16.
Missouri approves association effort.* by S. R. Edwards, 2-14.
Washington has annual convention, 2-23.
Cooperation in the telephone business.* by George M. Kloidy, 8-24.
Cords: What service should a cord give?* by J. Dale Williams, 25-30.

D

Dakota Central company sold to Tri-State company.* 9-19.
Design: Properly designed telephone buildings, by Howard K. Jones, 15-50.
Depreciation:
Progress of depreciation case before Interstate Commission, 18-44.
Testimony given in San Antonio rate case, 21-34.
The philosophy of,* by Frank F. Fowle, 18-18.
Directory:
Asks telephone directory listings extension line users (N. Y.), 19-36.
Telephone directory information pages.* by H. G. Woodward, 9-16.
District meeting:
New telephone home formally opened (Athens, Ohio).* by Staff Correspondent, 13-34.
Northern Minnesota.* 11-30.

E

Education: Value of educating the public, by Mrs. B. M. Cowles, 10-30.
Engineering: Value of cost studies, by E. M. Hanson, 8-18.
England:
British telephone service is efficient.* 18-23.
New exchange at Garston.* by J. W. Catchpole, 5-27.
Telephone news items from, by "Telephony's" special London correspondent, 17-21; 21-29; 26-31.
Equipment:
New equipment installed at Newton, Iowa.* by O. F. Schollenberger, 20-25.
Telephone equipment replacements, by Ray Blain, 12-22.
Europe:
Telephone conditions in Europe and U. S.* by William H. O'Brien, 25-22.
Telephone connections between European countries: With U. S.,* 24-20.
Expansion: Checking the program with achievement (Phoenix, Ariz.).* by Roy George, 24-21.

F

Floods meaning of service during.* by Manta J. Elder, 25-19.
Foreign:
British telephone service is efficient.* 18-23.
News items from foreign countries, by "Telephony's" Special correspondent, 17-21; 21-29; 26-31.
Telephone conditions in Europe and U. S.* by William H. O'Brien, 25-22.
Telephone connections between European countries: With U. S.,* 24-20.
Franchise:
Council hearing on Portland, Ore., franchise of Pacific Bell, 10-44.
New telephone franchise of Illinois Bell in Chicago, 17-29; 23-31; 26-35.
Pacific Bell rejects franchise for Portland, Ore., 4-36; 8-38; 10-44; 23-34; 26-38.
Regarding the new telephone franchise for Chicago (edit.), 23-15.
Fundamentals of Independent telephony.* by F. B. MacKinnon, 16-22.

G

Gophers:
About lead-eating gophers found in Minnesota, by Ray Blain, 22-23.
Trouble with "Buried" cable; Minnesota experiences, 14-24.
Graybar Electric to pass into hands of employes, 19-34.
Guys, The locating of anchors for down guys.* by J. H. Mathews, 26-30.

H

Health, maintaining of operators', by K. Perrin, 24-26.
Highways, use of by wire companies, by A. L. Turner, 2-21.
Holding companies:
Federal trade inquiry and holding companies (edit.), 12-15.
New Chicago company includes water and telephone, 24-23.
The power of public opinion—the holding company (edit.), 24-17.
Human appeal featured in telephone ads.* by Gray Le Vitt, 8-22.
Human interest in telephone advertising.* by H. F. Rehg, 22-18.

I

Illinois:
"Progressive" convention.* by S. R. Edwards, 20-16.
Underground residence distribution (Galesburg).* by J. C. Ballentine, 14-27.
Induction, balancing-out power induction.* by B. C. Burden, 10-16.
Information:
Complaint against discontinuance of information dismissed (N. Y.), 5-40.
Service to subscribers.* by E. B. Russell, 14-16.
Telephone directory information pages.* by H. G. Woodward, 9-16.
Inspection: Routine tests—submarine inspection, by Ray Blain, 6-18.
Interference, party telephone line.* by C. G. Vickery, 17-14.
Interstate Commerce Commission:
Denies approval of Illinois consolidation, 2-30.
Postal Telegraph protests valuation by, 15-62.
Reports of Class A companies made to, 3-18; 8-32; 13-19; 19-20; 22-25; 25-32.
Iowa, new equipment installed at Newton.* by O. F. Schollenberger, 20-25.

J

Joint pole use with power companies.* by D. E. Lowell, 10-22.

K

Kansas:
Modernizing of Wakeeny exchange.* by H. N. Faris, 6-34.
New switchboard center of rebuilt plant (Emporia).* by P. Winemiller, 13-30.

L

Labor saving devices: motor vehicles.* by S. B. Williams, 23-24.
Line, successful methods in testing.* by Chris Stewart, 26-32.

M

Maintenance, transmission display.* 23-19
Management, Canadian commission against interfering with, 9-36.
Manufacturing, interesting exhibits at convention (National), 16-48.
McKeon, Thos., telephone plant man for 50 years.* 7-20.
Medal, Edison medal awarded to Dr. Jewett, of Bell Laboratories.* 25-21.
Mellinger, E. A., says British telephone service is efficient.* 18-23.
Mergers:
British empire wireless and cable systems to merge, 5-18.
British radio-cable merger approved by Parliament, 6-18.
I. T. & T. organizes two new corporations; merger expected, 5-23.
Organization completed of Postal Telegraph & Cable Corp., 5-24.
Some aspects of the business "Mania for Merger" (edit.), 25-13.
Talk merger of Western Union and Radio corporation, 18-36.
West Indies Cables in British cable merger, 5-21.
Minnesota:
Conferences giving special attention to rural lines.* 6-22.
Dakota Central sold to Tri-State.* 9-19.
Lead-eating gophers found in Minnesota, 22-23.
Northern Minnesota district meetings.* 11-30.
Trouble with buried cable; Minnesota experiences, 14-24.
Missouri approves association effort.* by S. R. Edwards, 21-14.
Movies: How movies get right telephones for the motion pictures.* by Frank H. Williams, 11-24.

N

Newcomers in telephone field join the associations (edit), 22-17.

O

Ohio:
Athens now has automatic service.* by C. S. Cadwell, 9-32.
New telephone home formally opened (Athens).* by Staff correspondent, 13-34.
Oklahoma:
Commission renders final decision in Poteau toll case, 15-62.
Facts from record of Oklahoma toll case (edit.), 17-13.
Injunction suit before Federal court at Little Rock, Ark., 2-30.
Oklahoma-Arkansas company appeals order, 17-30.
"Open House":
New exchange at Lockwood, Mo., holds "Open House."* 26-29.
New telephone home formally opened* (Athens Ohio), by Staff correspondent, 13-34.

P

Pennsylvania: New service in Ephrata and Lititz,* by Charles Ruge, 4–28.
Personalization, dollars and sense of,* by Dorothy H. Van Ert, 3–18.
Personnel and the plant organization, by C. R. Armstrong, 12–16.
Philosophy of depreciation,* by Frank F. Fowle, 18–18.
Pioneers:
Independent Telephone Pioneers' meeting,* 16–24.
Telephone Pioneers of America hold annual meeting at Boston,* 20–24.
Plant:
A telephone plant man for 50 years,* 7–20.
Annual report of the plant division (National convention),* 16–33.
Cooperation between plant and traffic, by Mrs. E. Lewis, 3–21.
Handling of telephone plant stores, by J. A. Bracken, 17–17.
Helpful hints on cable testing,* by William Jamieson, 13–16.
Motor vehicles; labor-saving devices,* by S. B. Williams, 23–24.
Organizing for safety in plant work, by J. A. Bracken, 21–31.
Personnel and the plant organization, by C. R. Armstrong, 12–16.
Small exchange from a plant standpoint, by F. W. Rulison, 23–16.
Storage battery in telephone work, by Theodore A. Adle, 4–14.
The locating of anchors for down guys,* by J. H. Mathews, 26–30.
Postal Telegraph:
Contracts for Bell service, 9–34.
Protests Interstate Commission valuation, 15–62.
Program Service:
American Program Service Association (National convention),* 16–44.
Present status of, by H. T. McCaig, 1–23.
Present trend of, by H. T. McCaig, 19–17.
Progress in radio program service,* by L. O. Painter, 19–14.
Technical aspect of, by F. C. Young, 19–19.
The telephone company and wire program service (edit.), 19–13.
Public:
Point of view of an outsider, by H. T. Dobbins, 5–19.
Selling company and product to public,* by H. F. McCulla, 6–14.
Value of educating, by Mrs. B. M. Cowles, 10–30.
Public ownership in Western Canada, by John Curry, 19–23.
Public relations:
"Are we too busy" for civic work? by Carrie M. Bell, 13–23.
Recognizing the other fellow, by Mrs. Gladys Aust, 8–30.
Understanding: How it can be promoted, by Pauline Fancher, 11–16.
Value of educating the public, by Mrs. B. M. Cowles, 10–30.
Publicity in Independent telephony,* by Stanley R. Edwards, 7–23.

R

Radio:
Monopoly charge dismissed by Federal Radio Commission, 26–35.
Present status of program service, by H. T. McCaig, 1–23.
Present trend of program service, by H. T. McCaig, 19–17.
Progress in radio program service,* by L. O. Painter, 19–14.
Public, radio dealer and broadcaster,* by R. S. Brewster, 19–21.
Ringing machine interference to radio reception, by N. E. Branson, 15–48.
Suggests centralizing regulation of communications, 24–20.
Technical aspect of program service, by F. C. Young, 19–19.
The telephone company and wire program service (edit.), 19–13.
To organize new company for communications service, 24–23.
Radio Corporation:
In big merger for talking movies, 15–32.
Seeks to enter domestic service field, 14–42.
Talk merger of Western Union and, 19–36.
To compete for picture transmission business, 10–42.
Radiophoto, fast method of transmitting pictures,* 15–45.
Railroad, telephone on the American, by G. L. Miller, E. E., 6–30.
Rate, valuation of telephone cases,* by Harry G. Baldwin, 9–25.
Recreation for operators and others, by Mrs. Mary Post, 10–20.
Replacements, telephone equipment replacements, by Roy Blain, 12–22.
Revenue:
Additional possibilities,* by H. F. McCulla, 25–14.
Development campaign of Lincoln, Neb., company,* 24–33.
Sales possibilities in telephone field,* by R. F. Wilder, 15–33.
Review: "Telephony's" annual review of industry, by Stanley R. Edwards, 26–13.

S

Sales and Purchases:
Botetourt company, Va., properties acquired by Bell, 4–38.
British Columbia company takes over government lines, 2–24.
Chesapeake & Potomac buys Amos company, W. Va., 19–39.
Citizens' Public Service Co. of Mo. acquires plants, 10–43.
Commonwealth Telephone Co. acquires stock of La Fayette, Mo., property, 12–42.
Dakota Central control sold to Tri-State,* 9–19.
Garden Valley company purchases property at Bagley, Minn., 7–39.
Indiana-Ohio Telephone Co. combines two properties, 3–34.
Lorain County Telephone Co., Ohio, to Lorain Telephone Co., 2–34.
Michigan Bell buys Orion property, 12–41.
Northwestern Bell acquires Lidgerwood, S. D., property, 2–36.
Platte Valley Corp. at Scottsbluff, Nebr., sold to Commonwealth Telephone Co. of Chicago, 15–48.
Public Service Corp., S. D., purchases Minn. properties, 13–38.
Puyallup, Wash., properties sold to Pacific T. & T., 5–44.
S. A. Lane purchases two Arkansas companies, 1–22.
South Central company buys 17 Alabama companies, 1–40.
Southern Bell purchase of Homestead, Fla., properties, 10–42.
Sullivan company, N. Y., takes over Livingston Manor company, 25–38.
Three Ohio companies sold to Eastern Reserve Company, 19–38.
Tri-State T. & T. purchases property at Myrtle, Minn., 15–64.
Tri-State T. & T. purchases control of Dakota Central company,* 9–19.
Utah properties taken over by Mountain States T. & T., 15–64.
W. N. Albertson company acquires Wisconsin properties, 1–22.
Service:
Chicago has had service for 50 years,* 4–20.
Information service to subscribers,* by E. B. Russell, 14–16.
Meaning of service during floods,* by Manta J. Elder, 25–19.
Point of view of an outsider, by H. T. Dobbins, 5–19.
Spirit of service always wins,* by Margaret C. Grace, 25–24.
Telephone company uses airplane,* by Gray Le Vitt, 5–22.
Transmission essential to,* by Benjamin K. Boyce, 1–18.
Small exchange:
From a plant standpoint, by F. W. Rulison, 23–16.
Modern traffic in, by Owen G. Jarboe, 21–23.
Soliloquy of a switchboard plug,* by Nelle Roberts, 4–18.
South Dakota:
Dakota Central control sold to Tri-State,* 9–19.
Pioneer town (Mobridge) automatic,* by C. I. Kuppinger, 3–30.
Southwest Telephone Co. moves headquarters to Dallas, Texas, 12–21.
Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.:
Exransion causes two vice-presidents in,* 15–54.
Facts from record of Oklahoma toll case (edit.), 17–13.
Oklahoma-Arkansas company appeals order, 17–30.
Oklahoma commission renders final decision in toll case, 15–62.
Speculation: Indiana commission against speculation in utility properties, 17–28.
Strowger, developments in line equipment,* by L. L. Ruggles, 19–30.
Sundry snapshots along the trail, by Wyll Clay, 12–36; 18–34; 20–23; 24–28.
Switching rate: Oklahoma companies interested in $12 New York switching rate, 21–33.

T

Televox: How Mr. Televox is enabled to talk,* by R. J. Wensley, 4–22.
Testing:
Helpful hints on cable testing,* by Wm. Jamieson, 13–16.
Routine tests—submarine inspection, by Ray Blain, 6–18.
Successful methods in line testing,* by Chris. Stewart, 26–32.
Telephone transmission testing,* by Ray Blain, 26–22.
Unit leaks vs. megohms for line testing * by Harry N. Faris, 24–24.
Texas:
First district meeting of year,* 5–23.
New automatic system in San Angelo exchange,* by C. G. Wilson, 22–38.
New owners satisfied with equipment (College Station),* by C. D. Kinne, 5–36.
Thayer, Harry B., retires from A. T. & T. Co.,* 8–17.
Toll:
Facts from record of Oklahoma toll case (edit.), 17–13.
Injunction suit before Federal court at Little Rock, Ark., 2–30.
Nebraska commission rules on division of toll revenues, 18–48.
Oklahoma-Arkansas company appeals order, 17–30.
Oklahoma renders final decision in toll case, 15–62.
Petition for toll connection with Bell lines denied, 12–40.
Traffic:
Advantages of C L R method, by Mrs. Helen Sellers, 6–23.
Cooperation between plant and traffic, by Mrs. E. Lewis, 3–21.
Courtesy and what it means to long distance service, by Georgia Garver, 6–23.
Developing operators and supervisors, by Mrs. Bernice Lasley, 22–21.
Discussions from Iowa traffic meeting, 19–22.
Examining and instructing new applicants for positions, by Mrs. Minnie Mackin, 6–23.
From Kansas traffic conference, 18–28.
From New York traffic conference, 15–56.
Importance of a standard method for local operators, by M. J. O'Connor, 15–58.
Importance of giving accurate information, by Anna Lillian Busch, 6–24.
Increasing the company's revenue through traffic work, by Eva G. Biecum, 15–56.
Information service to subscribers,* by E. B. Russell, 14–16.
Installation of new instructions in central offices, by Marion MacMillan, 15–56.
Maintaining good health of operators,* by K. Perrin, 24–26.
Modern traffic in the smaller offices, by Owen G. Jarboe, 21–23.
Party telephone line interference,* by C. G. Vickery, 17–14.
Problems from tributary offices, by Marie Hall, 13–24.
Puzzling traffic questions answered (National convention), 16–37.
Routine for operators' instruction,* by Mrs. Rose S. Boyle, 5–16.
Soliloquy of a switchboard plug,* by Nelle Roberts, 4–18.
Some purposes of voice technique, by Mary McMurtry, 20–30.
Suggestions from (Kansas) traffic conference, 9–21.
Training: Troubles with careless troublemen, by Ray Blain, 3–23.
Transatlantic:
Extension of service to Budapest, 20–26.
Service now includes Vienna, Austria, 19–34.
Service to all parts of Belgium now available, 15–59.
Service to Switzerland, 5–34.
Telephone connections between European countries: with U. S., 24–20.
Transmission:
Essential to service,* by Benjamin K. Boyce, 1–18.
Telephone transmission testing,* by Ray Blain, 26–22.
Transmission maintenance display,* 23–19
Tri-State company purchases Dakota Central company,* 9–19.

U

Underground residence distribution,* by J. C. Ballentine, 14–27.

V

Valuation:
Figures challenged in Bell's San Francisco case, 22–30.
For telephone rate case,* by Harry G. Baldwin, 9–25.
Interstate commission places tentative valuation of Postal, 10–42.
Value of engineering cost studies, by E. M. Hanson, 8–18.
Voice technique:
In the small office,* by Dorothy H. Van Ert, 12–24.

Some purposes of, by Mary McMurtry, 20–30.

W

Western Union obtains Bell services, 7–19.
Wire tapping, supreme court refuses rehearing in case, 17–28.

AUTHOR'S INDEX

Adle, Theodore A.: Storage battery in telephone work, 4–14.
Ahlman, Leona: Putting personalities in advertising,* 1–25.
Albert, Arthur L.: Cable capacitance varies with test conditions, 26–29.
Armstrong, C. R.: Personnel and the plant organization, 12–16.
Aust, Mrs. Gladys: Recognizing the other fellow, 8–30.
Baldwin, Harry G.: Valuation for telephone rate cases, 9–25.
Ballentine, J. C.: Underground residence distribution.* 14–27.
Barnes, Anne:
A thought for traveling chief operators, 24–27.
A twist of the wrist—wrong, 9–22.
Detoured telephone service, 23–22.
Enough said, 12–30.
Happy New Year, 26–24.
Ingrowing people, 18–36.
Life blotches and other people, 5–21.
Lights and signals, 14–26.
Merry Christmas! 25–18.
Modern method of communication,* 1–27.
Monday, 8–19.
Something wrong somewhere, 3–27.
Telephone service at the crossroads,* 11–21.
The case of Hetty Stone again, 17–16.
The mixed ball, 4–23.
The sore thumb, 6–17.
The two little bears, 21–28.
The willfully wont's, 7–22.
Transfer pictures, 2–18.
"W. I. D." today, 22–22.
Working-day faces, 10–36.
Bates, Mildred: Relation of Bell of Pa. with connecting companies, 7–28.
Bell, Carrie M.: "Are we too busy" for civic work? 15–23.
Biecum, Eva G.: Increasing the company's revenue through traffic work, 15–56.
Blain, Ray:
Memories of a wire chief, 9–27.
More about lead-eating gophers found in Minnesota, 22–23.
Routine tests—substation inspection, 6–18.
Telephone equipment replacements, 12–22.
Telephone transmission testing,* 26–22.
Troubles with careless troublemen, 3–23.
Boyce, Benjamin K.: Transmission essential to service,* 1–18.
Boyle, Mrs. Rose S.: A routine for operators' instruction.* 5–16.
Bracken, J. A.:
Handling of telephone plant stores, 17–17.
Organizing for safety in plant work, 21–31.
Practical notes for maintenance students, 1–34; 2–19; 4–20; 5–26; 6–20; 7–34; 8–20; 9–23; 11–24; 12–34; 13–21; 14–24; 15–46; 17–19.
The telephone central office dynamo-armature core, 25–28; armature winding, 26–28; the machine, 24–34.
Brady, J. F.: How false economy increases subscriber's annual budget, 18–27.
Branson, N. E.: Ringing machine interference to radio reception, 15–48.
Brewster, R. S.: Public radio dealer and broadcaster,* 19–21.
Burden, B. C.: Balancing-out power induction,* 10–16.
Cadwell, C. S.: Athens, Ohio, now has automatic service.* 9–32.
Cage, Juanita: My idea of telephone service, 19–22.
Catchpole, J. W.: New exchange at Garston, England,* 5–27.
Chesterman, F. J.: Budgets; their development and use,* 12–19.
Clay, Weil: Sundry snapshots along the trail, 12–36; 18–34; 20–23; 24–28.
Conlee, H. E.: Automatic operation for Santa Barbara (Calif.),* 13–34.
Cowles, Mrs. B. M.: Value of educating the public, 10–30.
Curry, John: Public ownership in Western Canada, 19–23.
De Hart, Mrs. Edith: Service and system in the small telephone office, 9–21.
Dobbins, H. T.: Point of view of an outsider, 5–19.
Edwards, Stanley R.:
Annual Tri-State summer convention,* 7–14.
Illinois "Progressive" convention,* 20–16.
Missouri approves association effort,* 21–14.
Publicity in Independent telephony,* 7–23.
"Telephony's" annual review of industry, 26–13.
Elder, Manta J.: Meaning of service during floods,* 25–19.
Evey, Mrs. M. L.: The ups and downs of tributary toll service, 9–21.
Fancher, Pauline: Understanding: how it can be promoted, 11–16.
Faris, H. N.:
Modernizing of small Kansas exchange,* 6–34.
Unit leaks vs. megohms for line testing,* 24–24.
Farwell, Maro B.: The commercial department, 10–26.
Fowle, Frank F.: The philosophy of depreciation.* 18–18.
Garver, Georgia: Courtesy and what it means to long distance service, 6–23.
Geiger, Alfred L.: The association's Washington office, 16–32.
George, Roy: Checking the program with achievement,* 24–21.
Grace, Margaret Celeste: The spirit of service always wins,* 25–24.
Hall, Marie: Problems from tributary office, 13–24.
Halstead, A. A.: Why not canvass for higher grades of service? 10–25.
Hanson, E. M.: Value of engineering cost studies, 8–18.
Henderson, Estella: Relationship of toll center chief operator to tributary stations, 18–28.
Howard W. I.: Requirements for telephone operators,* 24–18.
Jamieson, William: Helpful hints on cable testing.* 13–16.
Jarboe, Owen G.: Modern traffic in the smaller offices, 21–23.
Jones, Howard K.: Properly designed telephone buildings, 15–50.
Kinne, C. D.: New owners satisfied with equipment,* 5–36.
Kloidy, George M.: Cooperation in the telephone business.* 8–24.
Kraege, L. M.: The telephone as a real modern business getter, 11–28.
Kuppinger, C. I.:
Lafayette, Ind., converts to automatic.* 4–30.
South Dakota pioneer town automatic.* 3–30.
Lasley, Mrs. Bernice: Developing operators and supervisors, 22–21.
Lewis, Mrs. E.: Cooperation between plant and traffic, 3–21.
Lowell, D. E.: Joint pole use with power companies,* 10–22.
Lowitt, Gray:
Human appeal features in telephone ads.* 8–22.
Telephone company uses airplane.* 5–22.
Mackin, Mrs. Minnie: Examining and instructing new applicants for positions, 6–23.
MacMillan, Marion: Installation of new instructions in central offices, 15–56.
MacKinnon, F. B.: Fundamentals of Independent telephony.* 16–22.
Mathews, J. H.: The locating of anchors for down guys,* 26–30.
McCaig, H. T.:
Present status of program service, 1–23.
The present trend of program service, 19–17.
McCulla, H. F.:
Additional revenue possibilities,* 25–14.
Selling company and product to public.* 6–14.
McLean, J. Walter: My old phone, 25–23.
McMurtry, Mary: Some purposes of voice technique, 20–30.
Miller, G. L.: Telephone on the American railroad, 6–30.
Neill, Allie: Toll tickets and their accuracy, 18–28.
O'Brien, William H.: Telephone conditions in Europe and U. S.,* 25–22.
O'Connor, M. J.: Importance of a standard method for local operators, 15–58.
Painter, L. O.: Progress in radio program service,* 19–14.
Perrin, Miss K.: Maintaining good health of operators,* 24–26.
Peterson, Bess: Supervising telephone toll service,* 10–14.
Pierce, Mrs. Gladys: Telephone service from the subscriber's viewpoint, 19–22.
Post, Mrs. Mary: Recreation for operators and others, 10–20.
Pullen, N. F.: Telephone company grows with country,* 11–18.
Rehg, H. F.: Human interest in telephone advertising,* 22–18.
Ruge, Charles: New service in Pennsylvania towns,* 4–28.
Ruggles, L. L.: Developments in Strowger line equipment,* 19–30.
Rulison, F. W.: Small exchange from a plant standpoint, 23–16.
Russell, E. B.: Information service to subscribers,* 14–16.
Safford, J. Warren: Task of "Just minding our business,"* 8–14.
Schollenberger, O. F.: New equipment installed at Newton, Iowa,* 20–25.
Schulte, H. F.: Phantom to metallic connections for extra toll service, 26–28.
Sellers, Mrs. Helen: Advantages of C. L. R. method, 6–23.
Sellvin, Mabel Pearson: Switchboard operation and the public,* 7–24.
Small, Nelson H.: Increased revenue through telephone booth installations, 12–23.
Stewart, Chris D.:
Some facts regarding practical testing not generally known.* 18–38.
Successful methods in line testing.* 26–32.
Swarens, Wilma: Completion per cent; satisfied patrons, 11–22.
Turner, A. L.: Use of highways by wire companies, 2–21.
Van Ert, Mrs. Dorothy H.:
Dollars and sense of personalization.* 3–14.
Voice technique in the small office,* 12–24.
Vickery, C. G.: Party telephone line interference,* 17–14.
Wensley, R. J.: How Mr. Televox is enabled to talk,* 4–22.
Woodward, H. G.: Telephone directory information pages.* 9–16.
Wilder, R. F.:
Necessity of adequate rates.* 2–14.
Sales possibilities in telephone field,* 15–33.
Williams, J. Dale: What service should a cord give?* 25–30.
Wilson, C. G.: New automatic system in Texas exchange.* 22–38.
Winemiller, P.: New switchboard center of rebuilt plant.* 13–30.
Young, Frederick C.: Technical aspect of program service, 19–19.
Zeig, J. L.: Switchboard, the backbone of the telephone business, 20–22.

Conversion Table—Issue Number to Date of Issue.

No. 1	July 7	No. 10	September 8	No. 19	November 10
No. 2	July 14	No. 11	September 15	No. 20	November 17
No. 3	July 21	No. 12	September 22	No. 21	November 24
No. 4	July 28	No. 13	September 29	No. 22	December 1
No. 5	August 4	No. 14	October 6	No. 23	December 8
No. 6	August 11	No. 15	October 13	No. 24	December 15
No. 7	August 18	No. 16	October 20	No. 25	December 22
No. 8	August 25	No. 17	October 27	No. 26	December 29
No. 9	September 1	No. 18	November 3		